

Role card of: Cara Durand

information:

NGO representative
already worked together with refugees in a job center → a lot of experiences, she knows the problems refugees have to face and how companies handle the situation

character traits:

ambitious → she is convinced of the project she tries to get her ideas across ↳ ready to find compromises position in the debate and towards others:

she wants to get her idea across → an NGO that helps refugees integrate themselves better → refers to Aurélien Taché (French politician) who wants to support refugees (financially) she sees refugees as a chance - important for the domestic economy → they should be allowed to work goals:

an NGO that: offers language courses, training programs and that works internationally

- easier access to a work permit
- that the work ban is decreased after refugees submit a request of asylum (from 9-6 months as it is in Germany)
- solve financial problems (question (→ NGO) → maybe donations
